agree. It was treason thus to pass appropriation bills.

Let them stand on their merits.

Mr. Warshes, (dem.) of Ga., maintained that there was no power is Congress to pass on the validity of the laws of Kansas—that it was for the Judiciary to do so.

Mr. Sherman's amenoment was adopted by 88 against 40, when the committee rose.

sition of Oubs.

Mr. Whitner, (K. N.) of N. Y., enfered into an argument to show that the Boman hierarchy claim supremacy over the civil laws of every country, yet for this there are apologists and advocates in toegress.

Mr. Chalte, (don.) of N. C., asked what practical legislation the American party proposed against Catholice?

Mr. Whitner replica none, at present, but they wish to a smend the nearralization laws, which to a great extent would reach the cyll. He contended that the Papal power opposes civil and religious liberty and the spread of intelligence. It therefore eaght not to be encouraged as a point and efficiency.

We BURNEY, (dem.) of Ky., said, in his judgment the Mr Bernser, (dom.) of Ky., said, in his judgment the republical perty was purely sectional, and if successful, the result would be the destruction of the constitution and the Union. On the heads of members who formed the Congressional Aid Society, ucluding Nessra. Banks and Mace, rest the responsibility of all acts of outrage in Kanras. The republicans do not desire the bleeding wounds of that Territory to be heated. They want to keep these open for political excitment North. Nobody supposed Filmore states a chance of election.
